Hey George,

Is that true? NHTSA is closing the investigation on Tacoma unintended acceleration? Do you have a Q&A? Thanks.

Subject Hi Martha

I'm looking forward to lunch at the sushi place at noon.

On a separate note, I'm writing an item for the wire on NHTSA closing its investigation into complaints that Takomas were accelerating beyond the control of drivers. Do you have any info on Toyota's own internal investigation into the matter and/or comment?

Josh
