Reporting Safety Defect for US Residents

If you believe that your vehicle has a defect, which could cause a crash or could cause injury or death, you should immediately inform the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) in addition to notifying MUST Technologies Ltd.

If NHTSA receives similar complaints, it may open an investigation, and if it finds that a safety defect exists in a group of vehicles, it may order a recall and remedy campaign. However, NHTSA cannot become involved in any individual problems between you, your dealer, or MUST Technologies Ltd.

To contact NHTSA you may either call the Auto Safety Hotline toll free at 1-800-424-9393 (366-0123 in Washington DC area) or write to: NHTSA, U.S. Department of Transportation, 400 7th Street EW, (NSA-11) Washington, DC 20590. You can also obtain other information about motor vehicle safety from the Hotline.
