Dear Mr. Shifflett:

Thank you for your letter and enclosures of May 3, 1994. In reply, we are pleased to provide the following information.

1. Appointment of an agent for service of process appointing Perman Stoler Customhouse Broker as such agent.
2. Our scheme of assigning a vehicle identification number to our trailers and copy of letter from the Motor Vehicle Manufacturers' Association assigning our manufacturers code as 2PE.

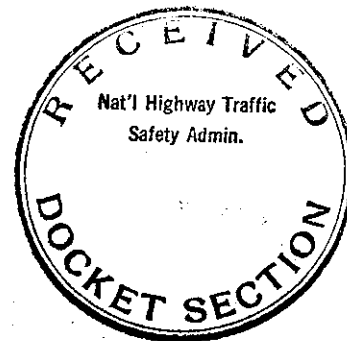

We will continue to comply with the other requirements as you have listed. Again, thank-you for your information.

Yours truly,

B. Craig

Dear Mr. Craig:

Thank you for your letter of May 12, 1994 in which you enclose your vehicle identification (VIN) number decipher and what you apparently consider to be an appointment of an Agent for Service of Process. The decipher has been forwarded to the VIN coordinator for any critique that might be required.

Your appointment of an Agent for Service of Process is defective. Please review the information sheet attached to the regulation and send a revised appointment to the highlighted address, with a copy to this office. Also, you did not provide information as required by title 49, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 566.

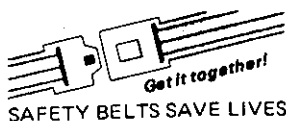

If you any questions please call me on 202-366-5307. For your convenience, copies of the two regulations in question are enclosed.

Sincerely,

George Shifflett

Dear Mr. Brian P. Craig:

Thank you for your recent letter in which you request that the company you represent be assigned a World Manufacturer Identifier (WMI) code.

In accordance with the requirements of the Canadian and United States Motor Vehicle Safety Standards pertaining to vehicle identification numbers (number 115), your company has been classified as a manufacturer of trailers.

Since your company manufactures more than 500 units annually we have assigned the following code (* denotes a manufacturer defined character):

2PE**

The elaboration of the 17 character vehicle identification number (VIN) is laid down in section 115 of the Motor Vehicle Safety Regulations. These and the Motor Vehicle Safety Act can be procured from:
