

Torine Creppy

President Safe Kids Worldwide

Torine Creppy is the president of Safe Kids Worldwide, a global nonprofit dedicated to protecting kids from preventable injuries. For more than 20 years, Creppy has worked with funders, legislators, and community leaders around the world to develop and implement strategic initiatives, create meaningful partnerships, and change behavior. Under her leadership, the Safe Kids Buckle Up program has evolved into the most comprehensive child passenger safety program in the world, and the Safe Kids Walk This Way pedestrian safety program has reached more than 17 million children in 10 countries. Creppy led a blue-ribbon panel and convened a consortium to ensure children are considered as autonomous vehicles are being developed. She is a passionate advocate on the Hill and in the media on vehicular heatstroke prevention. Creppy is a member of the American Public Health Association, the National Urban League, NAACP, the National Head Start Association, and Leadership Greater Washington.
