ANNEX

The 7th and the 8th digits represent vehicle design version and modification version, respectively.

The 7th digit refers to the design version, which indicated by either numbers “0~9” or letters (when the number is greater than 9, use relative letters according to Table 1). For example, “0” means basic/initial design, “1” means the 1st redesign, “B” means the 11th redesign.

The 8th digit refers to the modification version, which is indicated by either the number “0” or letters. For example, “0” means “no modification”, “A” means “the 1st modification”, “L” means “the 12th modification”. Please refer to Table 2 for the details.

Therefore the sample meanings of the combination of 7th and 8th digits can be found in Table 3
